WHAT PEOPLE GO TO THE WATERING PLACES FOR.

Some come to drink the waters (The sensible old fashioned elves:) Some come to dispose of their daughters.

And some to dispose of themselves.

Some come to exhibit their faces To new and admiring beholders,

Some come to exhibit their graces,

And some to exhibit their shoulders. Some come to make people stare
At elegant dresses they've got,
Some to show what a lady may wear, And some-what a lady may not; Some come to squander their treasure, And some their fands to improve, And some for mere love of pleasure, And some for the pleasure of love:

And some to escape from the old, And some to see what is new, But most—it is plain to be told— Come here—because other folks do.
